- Agree to give Sul Ross State University and Midland College permission to share my academic and financial aid records of information. I understand that such records will be used in compliance with FERPA Right-to-Privacy Act to determine my eligibility for this program and for financial aid.
- 2. Allow Midland College to apply all future certificates or degrees that I may qualify for to my academic record.
- 3. Understand that during periods of enrollment where I am enrolled at both institutions, I will only receive funding from Sul Ross State University (the home institution).
- 4. Understand that during periods of enrollment where I am only enrolled at one of the institutions, I will receive funding from that institution.
- 5. Understand that my eligibility for federal or state financial aid must be determined at both institutions and will provide any and all documentation needed for such programs to both institutions.
- 6. Understand that I will only receive federal or state funding for hours that I am enrolled in from both institutions as long as I stay enrolled in the Rural Texas Science Program.
- 7. I agree to abide by the policies and procedures of the college which is providing state or federal funding.
